

GRAND ARMY BUGLE NOTES.

THE NEW COMMANDER ISSUES A CIRCULAR LETTER.

STAFF APPOINTMENTS MADE—THE GRAND ARMY BADGE NOT PROHIBITED IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES—NEWS OF THE BROOKLYN AND NEW YORK POSTS.

The newly-elected Commander-in-Chief, Colonel Ivan N. Walker, of Indiana, in a circular letter which accompanies General Order No. 1, says that in assuming the duties of his office he hopes "to come into close touch with the department commanders and to keep step with all the commands, so that we may present an unbroken column." It is my desire that this shall be a year of active, earnest work. The time has arrived when we need each other. Every Grand Army post should be a recruiting station. There are thousands of honorably discharged soldiers throughout the land who served with credit in the army of the Union and kept their oath to the flag who are not members of the Grand Army of the Republic. We should make it our first duty to see that the names of these, our comrades in arms, are placed upon our rolls. Until this is accomplished our work will not be complete.

"As members of the grandest organization in the world, let us, one and all, strive to accomplish this result. By so doing we may reasonably hope to regain our losses from suspensions, to increase our membership and usefulness, and command that respect and justice which is our due."

Comrades, the Commander-in-Chief asks your active co-operation and assistance in advancing our lines. With your aid much can be accomplished for your interests; without it his efforts will be in vain.

Commander-in-Chief Walker evidently reads The Tribune, and has taken "High Private's" hint printed last Monday, that the delay in appointing his adjutant and quartermaster-general was not good for the interests of the order. In General Orders No. 2, issued October 8, Comrade Walker announces these staff appointments: Adjutant-General, Irvin Robbins, Indianapolis, Ind.; Quartermaster-General, A. J. Burbank, Chicago, Ill.; Inspector-General, William M. Olin, Boston, Mass.; Judge Advocate General, Alfred Darte, Wilkes-Barre, Penn.

In the same order the Commander-in-Chief directs department commanders to recommend the names of two comrades at large and one comrade for each of the members of the order in their department for sides-de-camp on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief. They will also recommend to the Inspector-General a suitable comrade to serve as assistant inspector-general.

TO HELP HER GET A PENSION.

Information is wanted of the time and place of death of Paul J. Fitzsimmons, who served in Company I, 44th Regiment, New-York Infantry. He left New-York City or Newark, N. J., eighteen or twenty years ago, and has not been heard from since then. Any person knowing anything as to what became of him will confer a great favor on a worthy woman by sending information to Mrs. Carrie Fitzsimmons, or to Mrs. A. E. Tiffany, president of the Woman's Relief Corps, No. II Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Mrs. Fitzsimmons is in poor health and in almost desolate circumstances. The above information is required to establish her claim to a pension. City and State papers are requested to copy this.

An old controversy which has been satisfactorily settled in the Department of New-York is now attracting attention in the Department of Michigan. During the funeral of a veteran at Port Huron, in that State, Wednesday last, the priest forbade the pallbearers to enter his church while wearing Grand Army badges, on the ground that the regalia of any society which has not received the approval of the Church is not permitted to be worn in Catholic churches. The incident created considerable feeling, and Bishop Foley, of that diocese, was appealed to. He said that no rule prevailed which would prohibit the wearing of Grand Army badges in churches, and that the Port Huron priest had committed an egregious blunder if he had excluded the pallbearers for the reason stated.

A ROMANTIC TALE OF FIDELITY.

Comrade Thomas Trahey, night clerk at Police Headquarters in St. Louis, has received permission from Sister M. Magdalene superior at St. Vincent's to remain overnight over the grave of Sister Louise, who in 1853 nursed the comrade back to life in a Frederick City (Md.) hospital, after he had been wounded at Fredericksburg and was taken down with typhoid pneumonia. Sister Louise had died in 1861, the same year of the same disease, and was never again able to walk. She died in Calvary Cemetery there. He visited her grave and determined that a better monument should mark her resting-place. After twenty-five years he returned to St. Louis to put up the new, attractive tombstone, was refused by the authorities of the convent who controlled the sisters' section in the cemetery. A few days ago Comrade Trahey received word that his application had at last been granted. He is a member of Hannon Post, No. 13, of St. Louis.
